ACT Theater Display

Only a few more days until the ACT summer shows! Come checkout a Seussical or Space Pirates-themed book from our display. It'll help with the wait.

Disability Pride Month Display

July is Disability Pride Month. Come checkout items by authors with disabilities and featuring characters with disabilities.

Some of Jess's favorites from the display include the picture book Song in the City by Daniel Bernstrom. A girl who is blind helps her grandma notice all the sounds (bee-beep! clickety clomp) of their city. Marshmallow and Jordan is a middle grade graphic novel. It has disability sports rep, an elephant friendship, and lots of whimsy. Out on a Limb by Hannah Bonam-Young is a fun, modern spicy romance.

Essay and nonfiction fans should try Disability Visibility: First-Person Stories from the Twenty-First Century by Alice Wong. Few things are as impactful as stories told by the people who live them.

Making Your Family Tree Returns This Week!

We are excited to share that Derrick Babbs is hosting another Local History / Genealogy program! Join him Wednesday, July 23rd in Moyer's Program Room. Drop in from 5-6 PM.

Bring a name, a question, information you have so far, or simply an interest in genealogy and local history. Derrick will be here to help! Learn about his favorite researching materials and start finding out more about your past.

This is a hands-on, casual, drop-in event for those 16 and older.
