Family Fun Bags

Looking to have a great night with your family at home? We've put together just the thing. Check out a Family Fun Bag. Included in each are: a DVD (G or PG rated), two picture books, and snacks. Plus, a sheet of 'old fashioned' games that are played without pieces or screens. Pick out your bag by theme or choose randomly. Either way, we're guessing you'll have fun!

Bags will be available starting Monday, July 28th while supplies last.

DVDs and books are for checkout, not to keep. One bag per family, please.

Back to School Week At Moyer Starts August 4

As hard as it is to believe, August arrives at the end of this week. Moyer believes in celebrating and encouraging the return to school. We've planned displays, kits, crafts, and more. Come visit with your current or future student!

Disco Crab Take and Makes

Starting Monday, kids may pick up a free kit to make a purple disco crab. This peel-n-stick craft includes all the parts needed for a disco crab, including gems. Grab one while they last—so shiny!

New Bookpage

The August issue of BookPage just arrived at Moyer. Included this month are their picks for the 12 more anticipated books of fall 2025. Jennifer Wright discusses Gilded Age party girl Mamie Fish. You'll find all the traditional articles and reviews as well. Free copies are available now, along with ones from July.

Pineapples at the Craft Table

Visit the Kids Craft Table today to make a paper pineapple. Practice tearing or cutting skills to form the pineapple out of construction paper. Then, give it personality by adding eyes, a face, and a green crown. As always, we LOVE when you show us your creations at the circ desk—please stop by to share your pineapples.

New Large Print Collection Has Arrived

Moyer is part of a group of Illinois Heartland libraries that share large print books. Every two months, we receive a new collection for you to read. Rotating collections include a little bit of everything. If you've ever felt like you've read everything we have, they're a perfect place to browse.

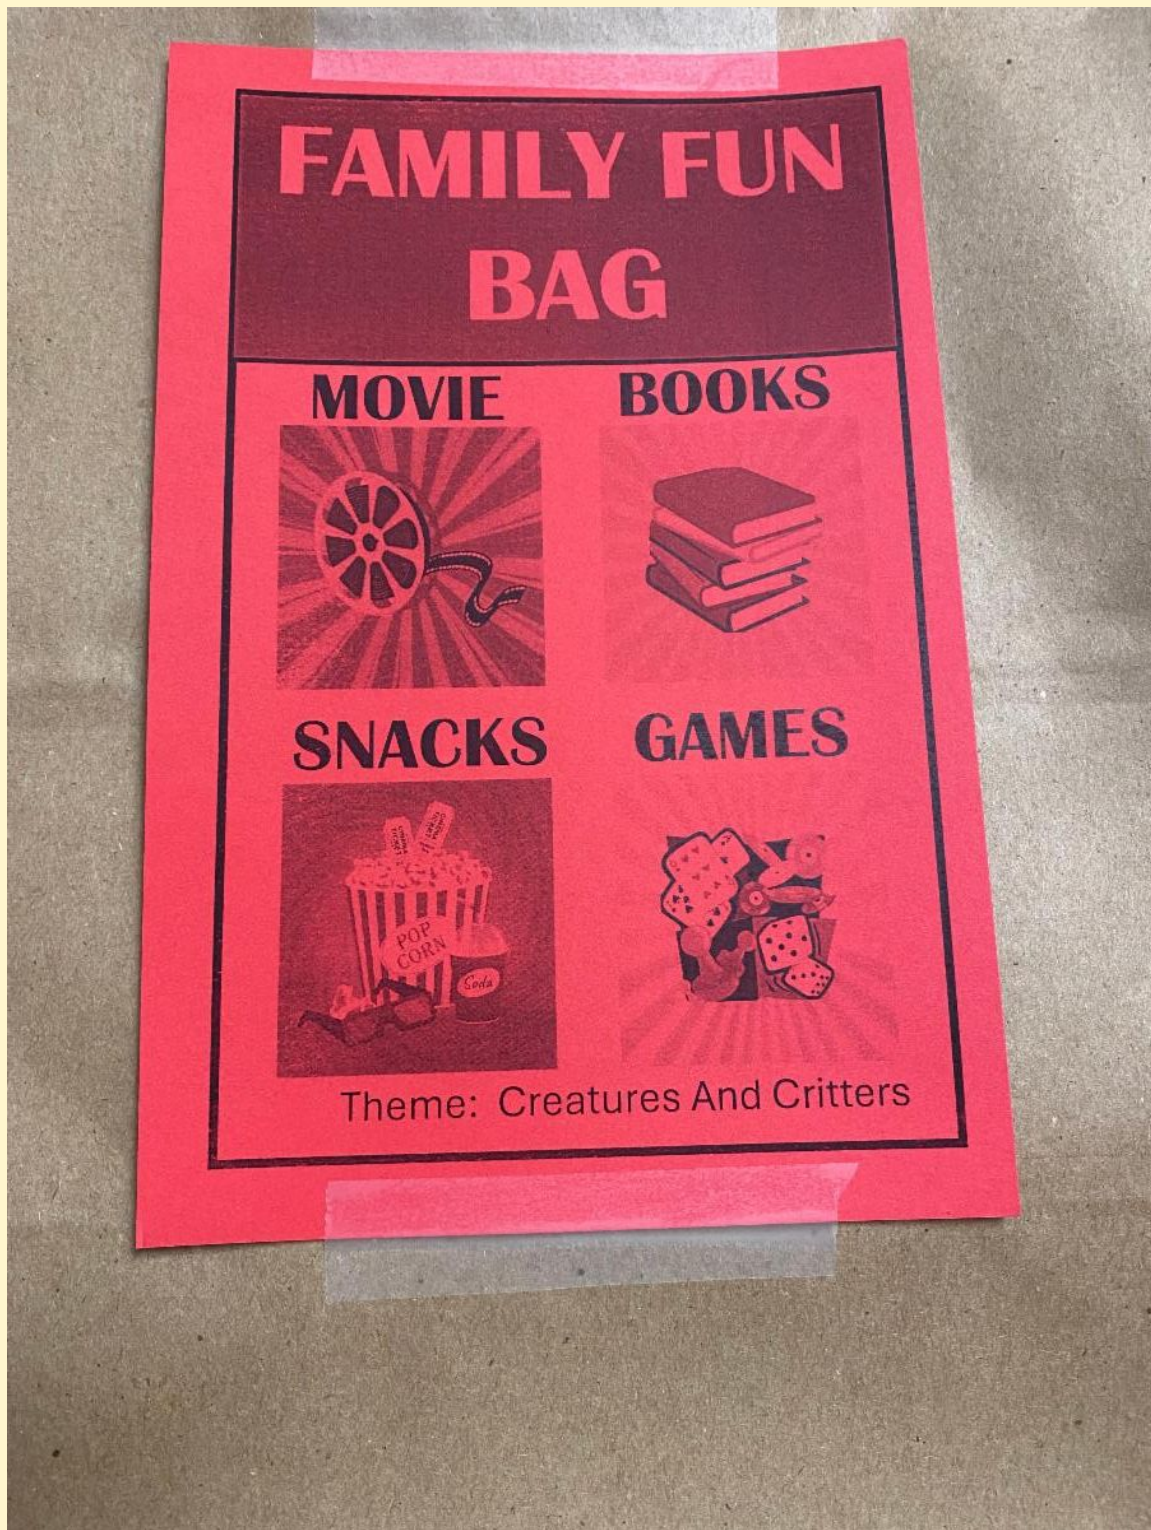

This set includes books by Joanne Fluke, Tony Hillerman, William W. Johnstone, Elmer Kelton, Debbie Macomber, James McBride, Julie Murphy, and more. The rotating collection is located on the shelves beneath the new large print books.

Disability Pride Month Display

July is Disability Pride Month. Come checkout items by authors with disabilities and featuring characters with disabilities.

Some of Jess's favorites from the display include the picture book Song in the City by Daniel Bernstrom. A girl who is blind helps her grandma notice all the sounds (bee-beep! clickety clomp) of their city. Marshmallow and Jordan is a middle grade graphic novel. It has disability sports rep, an elephant friendship, and lots of whimsy. Out on a Limb by Hannah Bonam-Young is a fun, modern spicy romance. Essay and nonfiction fans should try Disability Visibility: First-Person

Stories from the Twenty-First Century by Alice Wong. Few things are as impactful as stories told by the people who live them.
