

Happy August

New Phones Arrive This Week!

Good news! Our new phone system will be set up by the end of this week. We apologize for any calls we've missed. If you have left a voicemail, we have not been able to access it. If you have not heard back from us, please reach out again. We want to answer your questions and provide assistance.

Making Your Family Tree Returns Next Week!

We are excited to share that Derrick Babbs is hosting another Local History / Genealogy program! Join him Wednesday, August 20th in Moyer's Program Room. Drop in from 5-6 PM.

Bring a name, a question, information you have so far, or simply an interest in genealogy and local history. Derrick will be here to help! Learn about his favorite researching materials and start finding out more about your past. This is a hands-on, casual, drop-in event for those 16 and older.

Celebrate Back to School At Moyer

Moyer believes in celebrating and encouraging the return to school. To help you gain some excitement and momentum, we've planned a Back to School week at Moyer. Due to the popularity of our kits, we created more. Visit this week, too for:

- Paper Pencils at the Kids Craft Table
- Take and Make Paper Plate Apple Kits
- Fortune Tellers Kits with Back to School Questions
- Make Your Own Locker / Fridge Magnets using flat glass gems - Drop In Craft
- Ideas for Caretakers to support back to school success
- School-themed book displays for preschool through seniors

Moyer Book Club's Latest Pick

The Moyer District Library Book Club meets the first Thursday of each month at 1:00 PM. In August, they are reading Misfortune of Marion Palm by Emily Culliton. All are welcome to join; no sign up is necessary. You may pick up a print copy at the circ desk. Head to Libby and Cloud

A wildly entertaining debut about a Brooklyn Heights wife and mother who has embezzled a small fortune from her children's private school and makes a run for it, leaving behind her trust fund poet husband, his maybe-secret lover, her two daughters, and a school board who will do anything to find her. Marion Palm prefers not to think of herself as a thief but rather "a woman who embezzles."

Over the years she has managed to steal $180,000 from her daughters' private school, money that has paid for European vacations, a Sub-Zero refrigerator, and perpetually unused state-of-the-art exercise equipment. But, now, when the school faces an audit, Marion pulls piles of rubber-banded cash from their basement hiding places and flees, leaving her family to grapple with the baffled detectives, the irate school board, and the mother-shaped hole in their house.
