Moyer Book Club's Latest Pick

The Moyer District Library Book Club meets the first Thursday of each month at 1:00 PM. In August, they are reading Misfortune of Marion Palm by Emily Culliton. All are welcome to join; no sign up is necessary. You may pick up a print copy at the circ desk. Head to Libby and Cloud Library for ebooks and audiobooks.

A wildly entertaining debut about a Brooklyn Heights wife and mother who has embezzled a small fortune from her children's private school and makes a run for it, leaving behind her trust fund poet husband, his maybe-secret lover, her two daughters, and a school board who will do anything to find her. Marion Palm prefers not to think of herself as a thief but rather "a woman who embezzles."

Over the years she has managed to steal $180,000 from her daughters' private school, money that has paid for European vacations, a Sub-Zero refrigerator, and perpetually unused state-of-the-art exercise equipment. But, now, when the school faces an audit, Marion pulls piles of rubber-banded cash from their basement hiding places and flees, leaving her family to grapple with the baffled detectives, the irate school board, and the mother-shaped hole in their house.

Family Fun Bags

Looking to have a great night with your family at home? We're put together just the thing. Check out a Family Fun Bag. Included in each are: a DVD (G or PG rated), two picture books, and snacks. Plus, a sheet of 'old fashioned' games that are played without pieces or screens. Pick out your bag by theme or choose randomly. Either way, we're guessing you'll have fun!

Bags will be available while supplies last. DVDs and books are for checkout, not to keep. One bag per family, please.

New Bookpage

The August issue of BookPage has arrived at Moyer. Included this month are their picks for the 12 more anticipated books of fall 2025. Jennifer Wright discusses Gilded Age party girl Mamie Fish. You'll find all the traditional articles and reviews as well. Free copies are available now, along with ones from July.
